

A young boy with short dark hair, wearing a grey sweater over a white collared shirt, stands with his arms crossed in front of a green chalkboard. He is smiling broadly. The chalkboard behind him has white text written on it.

"Look out college,
here I come."

Newark's public charter schools are an important part of the citywide effort to ensure every child is prepared for college.

Here are some more facts you should know:

- All Newark charter schools are public, not private
- Every school is tuition-free
- Admission doesn't depend on grades or test scores
- Charter schools are open to everyone, including students with special needs

To see how Newark's public charter schools are raising the bar in education, visit ncsfund.org.

Newark's Charter Schools

Teaching our kids
to reach higher.